

Core Drum Extraction Tool

Utilicor Technologies core drum extraction tool allows for simple, safe and effective extraction of core drums which have become stuck in the pavement during the coring process.

Due to pavement composition fracturing or layers delaminating core drums may become wedged and not be able to be extracted from the cut. The core drum extraction tool is simple to use and will reliably allow the user to save time and get back to the job of cutting keyhole cores.

